Mushkegowuk Council 29th Annual Mamowihitowin

Resolution No. 2015-01-21

Mushkegowuk Healthcare

WHEREAS the health needs of our people are a fundamental concern of the Mushkegowuk Nation;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Chiefs and Delegates of the 29th Annual Mamowihitowin:

a) reaffirm the fundamental priority of working to improve health programmes for the people in our Mushkegowuk territory, including working with the WAHA Board and the federal and provincial governments;

b) reaffirm the need to work to replace the present WAHIFA agreement with an agreement that is under the real control of the Chiefs and the Mushkegowuk people, and that is based on our rights and identity as Treaty people;

c) reaffirm past resolutions that the new hospital be located on Moose Factory Island and on federal or First Nation lands;

d) reaffirm our strong desire to formally include Moose Cree First Nation as a partner with
